

Regional ethnografie ensemble „Krkonošský horal“ („Giant Mountains Highlander“) has been famous since 1958. The founder of this ensemble is Mrs. Božena Lelková, mother of actual director, Mr. Stanislav Lelek. The program of this ensemble is folklor studies of Giant Mountains and is inheritance of the family Lelek and Werich. The oldest dance is dated since 1455 at „Horní Branná“ youngest is the dance of the „Poniklé nad Jizerou“ dated since 1865.

This ensemble is situated in history and cultural tradition. The town Vrchlabí is lying on the banks of the river Elbe (Labe) and is called „The Gate to the Giant Mountains“. Performance in public is composed as the pedagogical concert, or as the folk dance in the village.

Just with the second variance of our programme, performance will be at the foreign countries.

In the lately time was our performance in this countries: PL, F, LR, It, BDR and Slovakia. In Czech Republic are we a regular visitors at folk festivals.

We wish vs accommodation together – no divide! Please.

Please ensure beds for all members of ensemble!

Thank You

Regionální národopisný
soubor
KRKONOŠSKÝ HORAL
Komenského 649
543 01 VRCHLABÍ

